   d. “Room” means the accommodations assigned to you, including an apartment, if applicable.
   e. “Occupancy” means accepting a specifically assigned Room by officially checking into such Room and accepting the key for the entire term of the agreement.
   f. “Residence(s)” includes and refers to residence halls and apartments operated by the University of Arizona. It does not include or refer to fraternities, sororities, or any other building/facility not operated by Residence Life at the University.
   g. “Rent” means the license fee you are required to pay for your use of the Room as set forth in this License Agreement.
   h. “University” means the University of Arizona.
   i. “2015-2016 Undergraduate Housing License Agreement” means this Agreement and the terms, conditions, rules and regulations set forth in the Policies and Procedures for Hall Living and your housing application, which are incorporated herein by reference.

3) NATURE AND TERM OF AGREEMENT:
   a. The University retains possession of the Residence and the Room. This Agreement constitutes a license to use the Residence and the Room, as assigned, for a specific purpose. This Agreement is not a lease to possess the Residence or Room, or to transfer any interest in either to you.
   b. This License Agreement becomes effective and binding upon your electronic agreement to its terms (if you are 18 or older at the time you submit the agreement) or receipt of your signed License Agreement Form.
   c. Roommate and hall requests will be considered but cannot be guaranteed. Failure to be assigned a requested roommate or desired Residence is not a basis for cancellation of this Agreement. You will be responsible for paying Rent for the entire License term even if the Room assigned to you is subsequently re-occupied.
   d. This License Agreement is for the entire Academic Year or Spring Only. Except in cases as outlined in section 10, you are responsible for paying Rent for the entire duration of this License Agreement even if you check out before its expiration but remain registered for classes at the University.
   e. With the exception of the Residence(s) designated for Winter Break housing, all Residences will be closed and not accessible during the Winter Break. You must vacate your Residence during this period but may leave your personal belongings. The only exception to this provision is if you are assigned to a designated Winter Break Residence and you choose to stay in your Residence during the Winter Break (additional fees apply).
   f. Summer and graduate student housing are not included in this License Agreement. Separate applications, agreements and rates apply to these housing accommodations.

4) TRANSFERABILITY:
This License Agreement is not transferable or assignable to another person. You may not sublicense any Room to anyone at any time.

5) OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION:
   a. Residence Life sends all official communication to the student.
   b. Residence Life will send official correspondence to your University email address.

6) CONFIRMATION RENT PAYMENTS:
   a. A $200 confirmation rent payment is due by the confirmation deadline date provided to you upon assignment. This confirmation rent payment (which is separate from your $150 non-refundable housing application fee and your University enrollment fee) is credited toward your fall semester Rent and confirms your intent to live in campus housing.
   b. Failure to timely pay the $200 confirmation rent payment by the deadline noted in paragraph 6a above will result in cancellation of your housing application and assignment. Reinstatement of a cancelled housing application will be considered on a space-available basis.
   c. The $200 confirmation rent payment is refundable only if cancellation of your housing application/assignment is received by Residence Life, from you, on or before May 15, 2015.
d. If you qualify under the University’s guidelines for deferring your University enrollment deposit, you may also request deferment of the $200 confirmation rent payment. If your $200 confirmation rent payment is deferred and you cancel your housing application after May 15, 2015, the $200 confirmation rent payment will be charged to your University account and payment will be collected in accordance with the University Bursar’s Office payment policies/ deadlines.

e. Confirmation rent payments are not applicable to Spring Only housing applicants.

7) OCCUPANCY:

a. Occupancy begins when you accept a key to your Room. Only the student officially assigned and checked into a specific Room may occupy that Room.

b. At the sole discretion of Residence Life, when necessary, you may be required to move to another Room to consolidate unassigned space.

c. If you are assigned to and occupy a disability-adapted Room, you may be required to change Rooms at any time in the event that there is a need to accommodate a student with a disability.

d. If you will be checking in later than 7 PM on August 22, 2015 for the academic year or 7 PM on January 12, 2016 for Spring Only, you must notify the Residence Life office in writing (email, fax, letter) prior to those dates/times. If you have not notified Residence Life of a later arrival date/time and you fail to take Occupancy by the dates/times noted above, you will be considered a “no-show,” and your housing application and assignment will be canceled. The $200 confirmation rent payment for Academic Year applicants will be forfeited. If you deferred the $200 confirmation rent payment and are a “no-show,” the $200 confirmation rent payment will be charged to your University account and payment will be collected in accordance with the University Bursar’s Office payment policies/deadlines.

e. You are prohibited from using the Room for any commercial purpose.

8) CONDUCT IN RESIDENCES:

a. You may only use the assigned Room as permitted by this License Agreement and subject to the management and control of the University. You are responsible for complying with all state and federal laws; the Policies and Procedures for Hall Living; and the policies, rules and regulations of the University (including the Student Code of Conduct), including any subsequent policies, rules or regulations that the University adopts or publishes during the term of this License Agreement. Failure to do so may result in a monetary sanction, administrative transfer to another Residence or eviction from University housing.

b. If you are removed or evicted from a Residence for conduct reasons during the fall semester, you remain responsible for the full fall semester Rent plus a $200 early move-out fee. If you are removed or evicted from a Residence for reasons of conduct during the spring semester, you remain responsible for the full spring semester Rent. 9) RENT AND FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS:

a. By taking Occupancy of the Room, you specifically agree to pay Rent charges for the Room for the entire term of this Agreement, regardless of the amount of time you reside in the Room. In accordance with section 3d, if you check out of your assigned Room any time before the end of the term of this Agreement, and remain registered for classes at the University, you are financially obligated for Rent through the end of the spring semester.

b. Each semester’s Rent will be charged to your University account and payment is due by the first day of classes for the applicable semester. The University Bursar’s Office provides an option for you to pay your semester Rent charge in three payments. The University Bursar’s Office will assess late payment fees to accounts with unpaid charges.

10) NON-EVICITION TERMINATION OF LICENSE AGREEMENT:

a. Except in cases as outlined in section 8b for conduct-related evictions, if you voluntarily withdraw from the University (are not registered for any credits), remain withdrawn for the remainder of the Academic Year, and check out pursuant to the required procedures for your Residence, you will be charged Rent based on the dates of your Occupancy plus an early move-out fee, according to the following schedule:
