2010-2011 HOUSING APPLICATION REINSTATEMENT TERMS

- A complete reinstatement request requires the submission of the form (to the right) and your signed Housing License Agreement (if not already completed). Your reinstatement request will not be considered without both of these items.
- While we do our best, we cannot guarantee that your application will be reinstated. Reinstatements are based on space availability.
- If your application is reinstated, we cannot guarantee reinstatement to your original hall and room assignment, nor to any of your preferences.
- If your application is reinstated, your "date of application," used for assignment priority purposes, will be changed from your original date of application to the date we receive your completed reinstatement request.
- By signing the form on the right, you have agreed to these Reinstatement Terms.

You may check the status of your application on your Student Link Housing Status page.

These documents are time-sensitive and must be submitted to Residence Life by mail, fax or delivered to our office. We are not responsible for delays with the U.S. Postal Service.

Cut along the dotted line and mail, fax or drop off the Reinstatement Request form to the address located on the top left.

*Please keep this section of the Reinstatement Terms for your records.
